MOTION FOR ENDS-OF-JUSTICE CONTINUANCE OF TIME FOR FILING AN INDICTMENT OR INFORMATION,
AND EXCLUSION OF TIME, UNDER THE SPEEDY TRIAL ACT

The United States of America, by and through Assistant United States Attorney Anne Paruti, respectfully moves this Court to grant a continuance of the time within which an indictment or information must be filed, and exclude the time period from December 16, 2019, through and including January 27, 2020 from the speedy trial clock, pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. §§3161(h)(7)(A), and Sections 5(b)(7)(B) and 5(c)(1)(A) of the Plan for Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases for the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts (effective December 2008), on the ground that the ends of justice served by granting the requested continuance and excluding this period outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The government further asks this Court to issue the attached proposed Order of Continuance and Excludable Delay. In support of this request, the government states as follows:

1. On November 5, 2019, the defendant was arrested and charged by criminal complaint in United States v. Daniel Hunt, No. 19-MJ-7438-JCB.
2. The parties have been engaged in preliminary discussions regarding the possible resolution of this matter that might result in an agreed disposition and obviate the need for an indictment.

3. The requested exclusion of time will permit defense counsel to adequately confer with the defendant, and allow the parties to further discuss and finalize the terms of any agreement, before the government is required to seek an indictment. Such an agreement, in conjunction with a pre-indictment plea, may work to the defendant's benefit.

4. The parties agree that, if the requested time is excluded, the government has until January 27, 2020 to return an indictment in this case. No previous extensions have been requested.

5. The defendant is being held in custody on the basis of the complaint, pursuant to an order of detention issued by Hon. Jennifer C. Boal on November 15, 2019.

6. A proposed order is attached.

Respectfully submitted,

ANDREW E. LELLING
United States Attorney

ORDER OF CONTINUANCE AND EXCLUDABLE DELAY

Upon consideration of the government's motion seeking an order of continuance and excludable delay, the Court finds as follows:

1. The defendant has been charged by criminal complaint in United States v. Daniel Hunt, No. 19-MJ-7438-JCB. The parties have been engaged in preliminary discussions regarding the possible resolution of this matter, which will likely result in a plea agreement and obviate the need for an indictment, and the requested continuance of the time in which an indictment or information must be filed will permit defense counsel to adequately confer with the defendant and allow the parties to further discuss and finalize the terms of any agreement, before the government is required to seek an indictment or information. Such an agreement, in conjunction with a pre-indictment plea, may work to the defendant's benefit or assist the government's ongoing investigation.

2. Accordingly, the ends of justice served by granting the requested continuance, and excluding the time period from December 16, 2019 through and including January 27, 2020 from the speedy trial clock, outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. §§3161(h)(7)(A), and Sections 5(b)(7)(B) and 5(c)(1)(A) of the Plan for Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases for the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts (effective December 2008).

Accordingly, the Court hereby grants the government's motion and ORDERS that, pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. §§3161(h)(7)(A), and Sections 5(b)(7)(B) and 5(c)(1)(A) of the Plan for Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases, (1) the date on which an indictment or information must be filed is continued to January 27, 2020; and (2) the period from December 16, 2019 through and including January 27, 2020 is excluded from the speedy trial clock and from the time within which an indictment or information must be filed.
